COMPLAINT PROCESS DISCLOSURE

Federal Program Integrity rules issued by the U.S. Department of Education require institutions to provide to students or prospective students contact information needed to file a complaint with its accrediting agency and with relevant state agencies. This list includes contact information for all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico. It should not be construed as informative of what agencies regulate Ross University School of Medicine or Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine or in what states the institution is licensed or required to be licensed. That information, along with contact information for our accreditor(s), can be found in the academic catalog.

TITLE IX COMPLIANCE

RUSVM's Title IX coordinator is responsible for the university's overall compliance with Title IX, including response to reports of sexual misconduct affecting the campus community. Questions regarding the application of Title IX and the university's compliance with it should be directed to the Title IX coordinator, whose contact information is available below. Students who wish to make a report of sexual misconduct affecting the campus community should follow the grievance procedure published in the student handbook.

The Sex and Gender-Based Misconduct Response and Prevention policy is available here (</content/dam/dmi/veterinary/documents/RUSVM-Title-IX-Policy.pdf>).
